Dear Member:

The Rare Breeds Pigeon Club is currently updating the Club's website. One of the areas of the site is a "Members Only" section that can only be accessed by current members. We hope to build content that will be helpful to members.

To enter that area your Log In Name and Password for 2013 is:

Log In Name: member
Password: RBPC2013

One of the enjoyable aspects of belonging to this Club is to connect with fellow fanciers raising the breeds you have and/or locating a breeder to acquire a new breed. We will include a listing of members in the Members Only section with the rare breeds that you raise.

We want to protect your privacy and therefore will not be listing your street address nor any other information you do not want listed. We do want to list name, state, phone number, email, website and breeds. Of course you may chose to limit what information you want listed.

Therefore we ask that you complete the following form and return by mail or email so we can add you to the directory.

_____ Yes, please list the information below in the members Directory
